[Music: Z. Nilsson / Lyrics T. Dahlström]

I laugh at you bible whores
Slave bastards you are
Living a lie under god
I laugh at your Jesus Christ
Open your eyes
He looks so pathetic weak nailed to his cross
Like zombies you enter the church
One after one in a line
To receive what the priest has in mind
Feeding a story of lies
I laugh at you holy priest
With your church you will die
Fire devour your home
I will laugh when I see you dead
Flames melting your skin
Smell of Victory
Like zombies you enter the church
One after one in a line
To receive what the priest has in mind
Feeding a story of lies
Priest howling in church about
Something they think they know so
Much about bible whores
Satisfied people they exit the church
Living a lie under god
God and his bible will mess up your
Head like a priest you will suck
Jesus cock
Live under Satan and live as you want
Or forever live as bible whores
I laugh when I see you pray
How silly you look
The candles you light I blow out
I laugh when I hear you sing
Those songs for your god
No one will ever save you
Like zombies you enter the church
One after one in a line
To receive what the priest has in mind

Feeding a story of lies
Priest howling in church about
Something they think they know so
Much about bible whores
Satisfied people they exit the church
Living a lie under god
God and his bible will mess up your
Head like a priest you will suck
Jesus cock
Live under Satan and live as you want
Or forever live as bible whores
God's bible whores
I laugh at them all
Too blind to see... Reality
I laugh at you bible whores
Slave bastards you are
Living a lie under god
I laugh at your Jesus Christ
Open your eyes
He looks so pathetic weak nailed to his cross
Like zombies you enter the church
One after one in a line
To receive what the priest has in mind
Feeding a story of lies
Priest howling in church about
Something they think they know so
Much about bible whores
Satisfied people they exit the church
Living a lie under god
God and his bible will mess up your
Head like a priest you will suck
Live under Satan and live as you want
Or forever live as bible whores
God's bible whores
Five dollar whores
Too blind to see... Reality
