Let's say goodbye to this fucking world
In a long, long wave I spit out your woe
Let's take all of those candy striped pills
And cut all our wrists and suck out it's milk

I saw it all, I felt it all go down
On a long, long road to the horn crowned king
As body and soul do separate
Till they reunite in gomorrah like sin

Let's play the drums who shatter the land
Till all those kingdoms are perished to dust
To seed an empire for a new, new nation
Which will last until the end of all time
