Oh, child of perfect grace
A watchful eyes is keeping
Who'll take your innocence
And leave your soul to weeping
Upon his lips a Judas kiss
That told you love held more than this...

Now, in your simple heart
There is no understanding
Where lies the truth
When faith must journey on...

Ophelia
Your face so sweet and fair
Ophelia
Floating down the river
With garlands in your hair
In the water's deep
Your soul will keep
The secret of your prayers
Ophelia...

See through your lover's eyes
A father's life is taken
Hear in your brothers cries
Where love has been forsaken
Now, on the wind we hear your songs
Only the memory lingers on...

Ophelia
Your face so sweet and fair
Ophelia
Floating down the river
With garlands in your hair
In the water's deep
Your soul will keep
The secret of your prayers
Ophelia...

And as the shadows fall
Our tears are overflowing

We light a candle
In remembrance of...

Ophelia
Your face so sweet and fair
Ophelia
Floating down the river
With garlands in your hair
In the water's deep
Your soul will keep
The secret of your prayers
Ophelia...

Ophelia...

Oh, child of perfect grace
A watchful eyes is keeping
Who'll take your innocence
And leave your soul to weeping

See through your lover's eyes
A father's life is taken
Where love has been forsaken

And as the shadows fall
Our tears are overflowing
We light a candle
In remembrance of...
