Here boom boom boom boom here..ga

Look out!

We're gonna bring somebody up on stage now with us
A Mr. David Woodford
Gonna blow some sax, 'eah
Watch this man.....go!

Well...some like 'em short
Some like 'em tall
Some like 'em thin
Skinny legs and all
I like 'em buttered
I like 'em proud
Now when they walk
You know they draw a crowd

See...'eah, well you got to have a mother for me
Gotta have, watcha say, watcha say...
See...'eah, well you got to have a mother for me
One more, gimme, gimme
See...hey, well you got to have a mother for me
Heah!

Yeah...popcorn...'eah, popcorn, 'eah
Cheese cake...'eah, cheese cake
Where are you honey, I can't see ya
There ya baby!
'Eah, 'eah uumm uumm uum...'eah
Listen here

Some like 'em short, some like 'em tall
Some like 'em thin, skinny legs and all
I like 'em buttered, I like 'em proud
And when they walk, you know they draw a crowd

See...heah well, you got to have a mother for me...'eah
Listen here!
See...uumm well, you got to have a mother for me...'eah
See...well you got to have a mother for me...'eah

See...well you gotta have a mother for me
Said you gotta have a mother for me

Said you gotta have a mother for me
Said you gotta have a mama
Said you gotta have a mama
Said you gotta have, said you gotta have
I said you gotta have, I said you gotta have Get on...

She got to give just what she got
To get just what she wants
She got to give just what she got
To get just what she wants
She got to give just what she got
To get just what she wants
She got to give just what she got
To get just what she wants
She can get, she can get a what she wants
What it is, what it is, just what it is

See...well, you gotta have a mother for me
See...well, you gotta have a mother for me
See...uumm well, you gotta have a mother for me
Let's get outta here

See...well, you gotta have a mother for me
Said you gotta have a mother for me
Said you gotta have a mother for me
Said you gotta have a mama, said you gotta have a mama
Said you gotta have
Said you gotta have
I said you gotta have
Said you gotta have
I said you gotta have
Said you gotta have
I said you gotta have
Uuumm honey, you gotta have a mama for me...uuut!

Thank you!
