Write Me

Well I've been away forever, suicide's crossin' my
mind,
But I'll never never never never never get so far behind.

I said, the ways of the night are evil with eyes that love
the day,
but I'll never never never never never get so far away.

I said write me, write me, write me.
I said write me, write me, write me.

Well there's nothin' I can see that'd ever make me want to be without her she's good, she's good to me.
Said there's no way to explain the kind of feeling that you get out in the rain she's good, she's good to me.
See this emptiness inside it makes me scream
it make me crawl out of my high, she's good, she's good to me.
I love her.

Write me a letter, write me a letter, write it today, I'm goin' away.

Well I've been away forever, suicide's crossin' my
mind,
But I'll never never never never never get so far
behind.
Well I've been so many places hidin' from the wind and
the rain,
But you could write me a letter for to save me from a goin' insane.

I said write me, write, write, write me.
Write me, write, write, write me.
Write me, write, write, write.

I said write me, write, write, write me.
Write me, write, write, write me.
Don't write me baby.
