Oh whenever we meet
I start to wonder why
Why we never speak
And then I start to cry

It wasn't all your fault
I really broke your heart
How can I begin
You were my best friend

You asked for the truth and I told you lies
So when it went down it was no surprise
But when I see you it all comes back
And it makes me wanna say
I miss you baby

I make sure I come around your way
But when I see you I got nothing to say
And everywhere I go I see your face
And it makes me wanna say
I miss you baby

Oh I wanna know her name
And does she treat you the same
She'll never be like me
One day you'll see
Oh I want you so bad
The best love I've ever had
I spend my nights alone
Waiting by the phone

You asked for the truth and I told you lies
So when it went down it was no surprise
But when I see you it all comes back
And it makes me wanna say
I miss you baby

I make sure I come around your way
But when I see you I got nothing to say
And everywhere I go I see your face
And it makes me wanna say
I miss you baby
