All you girls drive me, Crazy with the way you form up all these games, I'm from New Jersey, I wear pricey jeans, just dyed my hair blonde,
All these things consume your mind, and they don't mean anything,
Stupid girl, You can't just do what you want, One day, You'll get yours in the end, They care, only about, themselves, they're only using you
I can see it in your eyes, the way you look down, On everyone around you, what makes you so good? All of, you are fake
All your girls make me sick, acting like such sluts, You kiss the girls around you, to gain attention, And men, love this why?
We've seen this all before, Is that what we want?
We've seen this all before, is this worth so much?
You feel, that you deserve everything in this world,
Betray, all of your friends, manipulator
Continue to pry with all of your lies to win
That's not the way to live and breathe We've seen this all before, Is that what we want? It's not fair
We've seen this all before, is this worth so much?
You, steal your friends, relationships and make them end, and you don't care Fake, plastic, girls all around me god

We've seen this all before, Is that what we want? It's not
fair
We've seen this all before, is this worth so much?

Why do guys fall for the games that this girl plays?
Help me
