It's darker outside and the sky it is falling. Talk to me tell me that we're on the same side. If we are believing this could be amazing. Cause there's no where else to go.

Believe. Oh please believe with me. This could be the best day. If we believe and hold on. Believe. That these dark days. Will turn to light. And that a new day will begin. Don't give up in the fight.

Tell me that we are all in this together. it's hard when we fight - when we fight one another. it's hard to believe when there's no hope. But with me believe and see the beautiful tonight. The beautiful, The beautiful.
Don't give up, don't give up, don't give up. Even though it makes no sense to keep fighting. When it's always ending.

Don't give up, don't give up, don't give up. There's no reason to keep going. But it's not too late so stay strong, and stay strong.

Believe. Oh please believe with me. This could be the best day. If we believe and hold on. Believe. That these
begin. Don't give up in the fight.
