Cyber words are spoken
Angelic thoughts broken
This is the last time
I will give my self to you
This black
My black heart
Why do I give myself to you
To degrade my meaning
Yo know Ive seen you fall for this
Fallen for yo this it
I will never forget you
Ive been pushing
Pushing away
Every-time that I try to change the way we were
This should be the last time that I let you
Comfort me with your dry kiss

Ive held you tight wishing for the best to receive nothing in exchange for all that I can give Yet this light burns everyday
Yo and I are made for each-other
Cant you see it
Why cant we see that were perfect for each-other
I will always love you in my heart
I will always hold you
I hold you for now
Forever
For eternity
Till the end
For now
Forever
Now
