

After The Fall "Destination Unknown"

Visit "Destination Unknown" on MotoLyrics.com

A plane takes off towards the sky
No destination, no reason why.
And on this plane he looks out
Not knowing who and when,
What will fit.

And if I knew where I was going,
I would already be there
And if I knew where I was going
I would already be there

A train departs from platform
Their thoughts are where their feelings were
The tracks they bend, they stay straight
No turning back, don't hesitate.

And if I knew where I was going,
I would already be there
And if I knew where I was going
I would already be there.

Anywhere, anything
Just what we're meant for
Anywhere, anything
Just what we're meant for

Anyone...

And if I knew where I was going,
I would already be there
And if I knew where I was going
I would already be there.

Destination unknown
Destination unknown
Destination unknown
Destination unknown

Visit After The Fall page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

