I've been sitting here thinking
That too much thinking's not good for my brain
Am I floating or sinking?
All this thinking's going to drive this poor boy insane

Then why don't you stop?
I really don't know
Do you want to or not?
But it won't let me go
Do you want to know peace?
I'm not really sure
Want your worries to cease?
No, let me worry some more

'Cause I've been sitting here thinking
That all this thinking's not good for my brain, derr
I've been thinking and thinking and thinking
And I don't know if I can stand all this pain

You're a fool to yourself
Hey what do you mean?
You can stop if you want
Now your talking in dreams
You've just got to let go
Don't give me no jive
I've got enough worries just staying alive

So I step up and onwards, and what do I see?
There's a mist of darkness and it's creeping up on me
Many times before this road I've been
But never alone, depression walks at my side again
It's creeping up on me
I can feel it in my soul

There in the distance, a tiny point of light
It's growing, and glowing, and swallowing up the night
But I've still got darkness in my eye's
I must turn around, and face to where the brightness shines
It's creeping up on me
I can feel it in my soul
