I know you've had your share of problems
I know that life has been unkind
But everybody feels like giving up sometimes
I know that life's not always easy
That's not what I am trying to say
But it would hurt to see you throw it all away
Because the world will keep on turning
And life would go no just the same
You feel alone right now
But life goes on somehow
Together we can make it change

I'm not much good at sympathising
I never really see the point
But we can talk of silver linings if you want, if you really want
I'd rather see you through the hard times
And get your feet back on the ground
Cause you're the one who must fight back
When life starts pushing you around

Because the world will keep on turning
And life would go no just the same
You feel alone right now
But life goes on somehow
Together we can take and we can make it change

Because the world will keep on turning
And life would go no just the same
You feel alone right now
But life goes on somehow
Together we can take and we can break it, we can make it change
