When nobody understands me, when nobody wants to know

When all the world has banned me, there's only one place I can go

It's you

Nobody else can find the answers (it's you)

Nobody else can pull me through (it's you)

Nobody else can make it happen (it's you)

Nobody else but you

When my life is caught in freeze frame, when I'm stuck on random hold

When I need someone to free me, to start the tape to roll

When I think that I can take it, and face it on my own

When I'm trying hard to break it, who helps me stand alone

It's you

Nobody else can find the answers (it's you)

Nobody else can pull me through (it's you)

Nobody else can make it happen (it's you)

Nobody else but you

Nobody else can find the answers

Nobody else can pull me through

Nobody else can make it happen

Nobody else but you

When I'm acting like a hero, making out I'm really strong

It all adds up to zero, unless you come along

I need someone to help me, I guess that's no surprise

But when I look around me, I start to realize

Its you

Nobody else can find the answers (it's you)

Nobody else can pull me through (it's you)

Nobody else can make it happen (it's you)

Nobody else but you
