The ocean breathes its rhythm delivering my senses,
reality is welcoming Remind me what Im doing; is this where Ive been living?
This cave attempts to swallow light
Will it swallow me instead?

Is this what I hoped for?
A light in the darkness intoxicates,
drawing me closer with no escape to my fate

You are my only light, I found you now youre mine,
carry me through the night
You are my only light, I wont leave you behind, Ill guard
you with my life
He told me of your glory, about your unheard story,
How could I be the first to hear?
Your light could keep me living, your warmth returns
my feeling
But if I shared you, would you leave?
Would your light abandon me?

Is this what I hoped for?
Your love told me nothing would be the same
This has no ending if Ill just stay
Where Im safe

[Chorus]
Will you burn out when Im gone?
[Chorus]
Will you burn out when Im gone?
