you said you wanted to be loved I think you wanted to be saved but tell me how am I supposed to save a girl like you when I don't even know how to save myself maybe I'll drive all night wake up in the harsh day light in a different town start a brand new life and never have to see your face again

I wonder if this spell were under
is ever gonna end
I wonder if this spell were under
is ever
ever going to end

I guess its never any closer since I last took it alright you said you hope that I'm happy now but we both know like everything that's one big fucking lie I wish I could turn around erase our lives take back those vows I guess its not that easy now I'll tear that fucking chapel to the ground

I wonder if this spell were under
is ever gonna end
I wonder if this spell were under is ever going to end today I woke up and these leaves that are weathered faded and fell to the ground like our dying hearts

I wonder if this spell were under
is ever gonna end
I wonder if this spell were under
is ever

I wonder if this spell were under
is ever gonna end

I wonder if this spell were under
is ever gonna end
I wonder if this spell were under
is ever gonna end
I wonder if this spell were under
is ever
ever going to end
