You inhale the toxic fumes,
I look away, and then resume to...
Do all the things that I told myself
I wouldn't ever do.
Why do I always believe,
That I'm in love with everyone I see?
And, why did the next one have to be you?
Why do you believe that everything I say is True?
(chorus) why must I always do this?
Why do I put myself through this?
Love is blind and so unkind...
I never can make up my mind!
I undo the thought from my head,
Forgetting all you ever said.
Today it's you, tomorrow someone else,
Maybe I'm just better off by myself!
I forget that it's just you...
And not some person that I've always knew!
(repeat chorus)
Love is blind... love is a lie!
