Well I've got a couple things to say about a guy and a girl

They met a few months back at a coffee house

He said, "I like that dress that you're wearing

Why don't you just let me take you home tonight?"

I know you've heard it all before

When everyone makes mistakes these days

Hey nobody is perfect

But the choices that you make may involve someone else

Well I met a girl thought I loved but, unfortunately

I guess I didn't take the time to get to know that girl

Before I made a lot of choices

That I wasn't prepared to make

You've heard it all before

But everyone makes mistakes these days

Hey nobody is perfect

But the choices that we make may involve someone else

Know you've heard it all before

When everyone makes mistakes these days

Hey nobody is perfect

But the choices that I make may involve someone else

If you think you've found that one

That you really love make sure they love you back
