Deutschland has gotta die
(Eins, zwei, drei, vier)

Wake up, wake up, get off your knees
Where will the West strike next?
The war is still between East and West

Money talks, money knows you're so bored and sick
Let's burn Germany
Building up economy of dead bodies
That's what they want

We react very strongly to tranquilizers, you know

I need a diversion for a silent escape, harder, faster
You know what they're after
You haven't suffered the same as I have Senseless never ending terror

We make 'em nervous, we make 'em nervous
We make 'em nervous, we make 'em nervous
We make 'em nervous

Deutschland has gotta die

Wake up, wake up, get off your spleen
What will the West strike next
The war is still between East and West

Money talks, money knows you're so bored and sick
Let's burn Deutschland

The bloody wankers tried to pull us down
Blow 'em up, blow 'em up
The bloody wankers try to pull us down but
But we're gonna smash them in

But we're gonna smash them in
But we're gonna smash them in
But we're gonna smash them in

The bloody wankers tried to pull us down

Blow 'em up, blow 'em up
The bloody wankers try to pull us down but
But we're gonna smash them in

But we're gonna smash them in
But we're gonna smash them in
But we're gonna smash them in

The bloody wankers tried to pull us down
Blow 'em up, blow 'em up
The bloody wankers try to pull us down but
But we're gonna smash them in

But we're gonna smash them in
But we're gonna smash them in
But we're gonna smash them in

The time is right to fight
