Every moment I feel like I'm falling in love
Over and over, it's never enough
Every moment I see you it's always the same
Over and over, it is starting again

Every time I see your face
Sends my senses into space
Every time I hear your name
Makes me feel so alive
That's when love rushes through my veins

Every moment I feel like I'm falling in love
Over and over, it's never enough
Every moment I see you it's always the same
Over and over, it is starting again

Every time I see your face
Sends my senses into space
Every time I hear your name
Makes me feel so alive
That's when love rushes through my veins

Every moment I feel like I'm falling in love
Every moment I feel like I'm falling in love
Over and over, it's never enough

Every time I see your face
Sends my senses into space
Every time I hear your name
Makes me feel so alive
That's when love rushes through my veins

Every moment I feel like I'm falling in love
Over and over, it's never enough
Every moment I see you it's always the same
Over and over, it is starting again

Every time I see your face
Sends my senses into space
Every time I hear your name
Makes me feel so alive
That's when love rushes through my veins
