Behind the sky there I'm
I'll try to reach you
Without clear what disguise
I am nothing

Won't you (rub/rule my heart/eye/role my heart?)
Seems you already own my heart Huh
If only i can come and see you die
It'd be the only reason why

You're being the impossible
Things who realize
When you let yourself be so
There hell...

What the coward lies behind
Your now is gone
My before is your now
And why I must go

We're doomed to survive
For a little/lay

The only would... he fly
The empty's response to why

The empty's response to why [repeated several times...]
Hoooooo Hoooooooooooo
