"Hypocrisy"

Tell me, tell me, whos around me with no mask
With no more, with no more intentions than those shown
In their words, in their covers
Who denied himself todo lo que fu
Now is seeing through my eyes
Knowing all of the damage que dej atrs
Who betrayed me twice trato de confiar
And now is seeing through my eyes
Killing part of my sadness antes de hablar
All I see is hypocrisy, thats why Im asking you
Who is real, who is real, whos my friend then
Solo estoy, when I fall
Solo estoy, Im alone with all of you around
I cant trust you
I cant trust your words
