

Agressor "Warrior Heart"

From fire and steel did the gods forge
The heart of the warriors
So fiercely did it beat,
So loud was the sound that the gods wondered.
We've made you the strongest creature
Of the entire heaven
And none can't stand before you
Without trembling at your strength
You're the warrior deep in your heart
But the heart starts to bleed and weakened

Then the gods wondered if they have erred or not

No! I fear no evil
Sailed seven seas
Killed thousand men
I'm the king of the battlefields

You've been made the strongest creature
In all of the heaven
And none can't stand before you
Without trembling at your strength
You're the warrior deep in your heart
Then fight
