I've been to all the familiar places
I've been running like a sentence never begun
I've been looking for a way to let ya know
I got nothing left to fill spaces
I got nothing but a center coming undone
I've been doing circles and it shows

Every cloud in the sky
Every place that I hide
Tell me that I, I was wrong to let U go
Every sounds that i hear
Every thoughts that I fear
Tell me that I, I was wrong, I was wrong to let U go.

It's the little things that make you crazy
Like the flutter of someone touching your skin
I can see you everywhere I go
You could be inside a sea of faces
It could be the rumour of your grin
Swimming in the river as it flows
