I've been to all the familiar places
I've been running like a sentence never begun
I've been looking for a way to let you know

I got nothing left to fill the spaces
I got nothing but a center coming undone
I've been doing circles and it shows

Every cloud in the sky
Every place that I hide
Tell me that I
I was wrong to let u go

Every sounds that I hear
Every thoughts that I feel
Tell me that I, I was wrong
I was wrong to let u go

I've been to all the familiar places
I've been running like a sentence never begun
I've been looking for a way to let you know

I got nothing but a center coming undone
I've been doing circles and it shows

Every cloud in the sky
Every place that I hide
Tell me that I
I was wrong to let u go

Every sounds that I hear
Every thoughts that I feel
Tell me that I, I was wrong
I was wrong to let u go

Let u go
Let u go
Let u go
