There is no contemplating
It's all negotiating
It makes no sense what we've become
There are no words to explain
It's all just bugs and aeroplanes
We stretch but we can't even touch
They talk about our present
The past and almost everything
Before they never even tried
But I can't find the answers
To all the questions inside
Some things are just the way they are

But tonight it's all
And ever lasting out of here
The kind that makes my story disappear
Tonight it's everything I'll ever need to know
And I'm certain for the right way to go

I've tried to see it your way
I've made up stupid stuff to say
But you never really did reply
There are tons of bricks between us
But we still have to meet up
And be the people that we are
They talk about our present
The past and almost everything
Before they never even tried
But I can't find the answers
To all the questions inside
Some things are just the way they are

But tonight it's all
And ever lasting out of here
The kind that makes my story disappear
Tonight it's everything I'll ever need to know
So certain for the right way to go

But tonight it's all (There are tons of bricks between us)
And ever lasting out of here (But we still have to meet up)

The kind that makes my story disappear (And be the people that we are)
Tonight it's everything I'll ever need to know
So certain for the right way to go

And ever lasting out of here
The kind that makes my story disappear
Tonight it's everything I'll ever need to know
So certain for the right way to go

Talk about our present
Before they even tried
I can't find the answers
