I will find mistakes
In the lines of your face
When you say my name
Because when this ends I'll want someone to blame

Isn't that twisted
My love, isn't that twisted
My love, I am so twisted
Ooh, my love

In perfect moments I want to
Annihilate the guard and surrender
But I cannot be that tender
With heartache hardened underneath my skin
So I may never let you in

Ooh, isn't that twisted
My love, isn't that twisted
My love, I am so twisted
Ooh, my love

Just give me a moment
I've got to step back
Just give me a moment
I've got to step back

A moment
A moment
My love

Ooh, isn't that twisted
My love, isn't that twisted
My love, I am so twisted
Ooh, my love

Ooh, isn't that twisted
My love, isn't that twisted
My love, I am so twisted
Ooh, my love
