Athena

I guess you never lie

I guess you never lie

These Reasons why Im leaving

I guess you never lie

This place is solitude

Im sure that

You like me to

Your face and body are killer for my eyes and what they feed from

The reasons why Im leaving

I guess you never lie

I guess you never

These reasons why Im leaving you

Smearred black photos kill the past

Enormity like Beauty

Youre the beast

As I Feast my eyes upon her

I can, I could be like you I could

Now

Never

On my shoulder, the smearred black eyeliner

Cause we are the ones that tore through the cape

Still I found a way

Hearts, Pitch black Athena
