Is it something
More than nothing?
Ruled by these insecurities
Is it a privilege
To sink faster
Than the rest of these awkward fools?

It's more than i could ever share
Not more than i could offer you yeah
We're getting out of touch it seems you think
We're stuck to this the game we play

Drifting further
Into this coma

Trapped in between this consciousness
Is it a privilege
To sink faster
Than the rest of these awkward fools?

It's more than i could ever share
Not more than i could offer you yeah
We're getting out of touch it seems you think
We're stuck to this the game we play

And all that i could Ever be
Ever
