All i wanted to be
So different than before
Transparent to me
Projected on the back of mind
Don't worry about me
I'll be alright
Don't worry about me
I'm in good hands

Don't you ever want to go back down to
Where it's going to end and begin
Don't you ever want to go back down to
Where it's going to end and begin
This pilgrimage

I packed my bags
Now gone for good
Transparent to me
Projected on the back of my mind

Don't worry about me
I'll be alright
Don't worry about me
I'm in good hands

Don't you ever want to go back down to
Where it's going to end and begin
Don't you ever want to go back down to
Where it's going to end and begin

Don't you ever want to go back down to
Where it's going to end and begin
Don't you ever want to go back down to
Where it's going to end and begin
This pilgrimage
