Now it's december, the time to remember that we've got so much to give another year is over and then looking back to see, all the joy in livin' yes we can be thankful together hand in hand celebrating forever, please don't let love go refrain

now that it's christmas time wishing we giving and we try just better joy for smile, let's get together
you and I,
yes we can, the future is in your hand tomorrow another sun will shine and a new day brings love at christmas time the spirit of christmas, is gone into every heart for you to come home it's not always easy, but sometimes a little smile is the greatest treasure don't forget that a life is a present it's a gift, now let's share it together, please don't let love go

just better joy for smile,
let's get together
you and I,
yes we can, the future is in your hand

yes I hear the christmasbells ringin' out of the clouds, they ring for me and you everyone's waiting to say, merry christmas and a happy new year

now that it's christmas time (merry christmas and a happy new year)
wishing and giving and we try just better joy for smile,let's get together you and I, yes we can, the future is in your hand
and a new day brings love at - and a new day brings love everytime
