It's a cruel cruel world
So conventional
Sometimes love just wins you over
I've come to life it's true
It's not intentional
Everytime when we move closer

I'll take the fall
A twist see right through me
It may be wrong
But all long
It keeps on turning turning

I could walk away now
End it perfectly
And just say your words are
Not affecting me
Somewhere deep inside
I know it may be wrong
But I'm ready to commit
Mistake no.2
Mistake no.2

Must have heard it once a million times
From every one the perfect line
But you're the one to recognize
There are things i need in my life
So I'll take the fall
A twist i know
It keeps on turning turning

Here it comes again
It never ends
I keep on falling further
I'm not sure that i can walk away now
