"Till I See The Sun"

Come with me, into a world that only two can share
Underneath the moonlight voices linger in the air
Dark and still, I can hear your beating heart with mine
Echoes of a loneliness are leaving me behind

I must be dreamin'Â'
And I should know better
How can all of this be true

IÂ'm only dreaming
Till I see the sun
And IÂ'll believe it
When the morning comes
NothingÂ's real until I see the sun

As we danced moving gently to the radio
Through the open window I could see the morning glow
With each kiss, I can feel my fears all drift away
Together we can fly into the dawning of the day

I must be dreamin'Â'
And I should know better
How can all of this be true

IÂ'm only dreaming
Till I see the sun
And IÂ'll believe it
When the morning comes
NothingÂ's real until I see the sun

Till I see the sun
