We must have read a thousand faces
I must have robbed them of their cause
Sickened thirst, sickened thirst
Keeps it together
Soft white glow in the cranium
A bulls eye made sedated

Beware, beware, beware

I must have read a thousand faces+
And all these voices won't give up
Sickened thirst, sickened thirst
Glues it together
A catatonic leisure
At 1000 miles per hour

Beware, beware, beware

So, who's in charge here?
Barkin' out loud so clear
Because I'd really like to meet him

So, who's in charge here?
[Incomprehensible]
Because I'd really like to meet him

So, who's in charge here?
Barkin' out loud so clear
Because I'd really like to meet him

Uproar east, strike west

Have you ever tasted skin?
Sink your, sink your teeth in it
Have you ever tasted skin?
Sink your, sink into
Have you ever?

Beware, beware, beware
Beware, beware, beware
