the proposition handcuffed to the park bench hypodermic people poking fun at the living please lift the weight out of this
it takes the weight out of living are we just infants that are ripe for the training the opposition
can't feel the tentacle reach suction cup the numb arms of the elderly
please lift the weight out of this
let these walkers trip on endless proof

pattern against user- dilated bastard waiting for nothing circus carnies guarding the gates of heaven like stuck in limbo abduction wormed our way through distant earth

this intuition limps with the cane of suspicion folding space in the crease of this page it takes the weight out of this it takes the weight out of-trickling the ticking of this grandfather clock

suction cup the numb arms of the elderly

[chorus]

and if this clock keeps ticking away will time be hesitated of all the minutes that were taken away

will your watch be waiting sand falls through time portals
these landfills - immortal and if this clock keeps beating down
let the branded time keep playing of all the minutes that were taken away
