Autonomous machete for hands
Warden and judge hide behind masks
Wet raindrop lull small rationing
Exhumed the rhetoric of

Break the weak in single file
Sanction this outbreak a virus conspires
Push becomes shove, days become months
And I seem to have forgotten the warmth of the sun

Feeding frenzy, it's contagious
Have trigger, will travel, have trigger, will travel
Feeding frenzy, it's contagious
Have trigger, will travel, have trigger, will travel

Single sparks are spectral fires
Have trigger, will travel, have trigger, will travel
Feeding frenzy, it's contagious

Shackled the grapple and the sentinels found
Binoculars watch cardboard towns
Strung up in webs the net was flung
Over the auditorium

Slave trade the weak, no call to arms
Sanction this outbreak, a virus conspires
Push becomes shove, days become months
And I seem to have forgotten the warmth of the sun

Feeding frenzy, it's contagious
Have trigger, will travel, have trigger, will travel
A single spark can start a spectral fire
Have trigger, will travel, have trigger, will travel

Feeding frenzy, it's contagious
Have trigger, will travel, have trigger, will travel
A single spark can start a spectral fire

A single spark can start a spectral fire
Have trigger, will travel
A single spark can start a spectral fire
Have trigger, will travel

A single spark can start a spectral fire
Have trigger, will travel
A single spark can start a spectral fire
