Ooooh

I'll be waiting just around

The corner of your eye.

If you knew how many nights

I've been sitting by your bed

Running fingers through your hair

While you're resting

Every time I call your name

I softly whisper in your ear

You turn around and look for me

But no one's there

Where ever you are, where ever you go

I'll be around

I'll be around just want you to know

Just want you to know

If you're lost without me

Wondering where I might be

I'll be waiting just around the corner of your eye

Like an Angel watching

Even when you're dreaming

I'll be waiting just around the corner of your eye

I could be your pot of gold

Everything you're wishing for

Do you really wanna find a rainbow there (rainbow there)

Let me know It'll all come true.

I'll give my all to you

Don't let anyone take your dream away (take your Dream away)

Where ever you are, where ever you go

I'll be around

I'll be around just want you to know

Just want you to know

If you're lost without me

Wondering where i might be

I'll be waiting just around the corner of your eye

Like an Angel watching

Even when you're dreaming

I'll be waiting just around the corner of your eye

There's a song playing

And every heart is beating

A key that unlocks every door

There's a time for knowing

What's behind you and

Every soul you're wishing for

If you're lost without me

Wondering where i might be

Ill be waiting just around the corner of your eye

If you're lost without me

Wondering where i might be

Ill be waiting just around the corner of your eye

If you're lost without me

Wondering where i might be

Ill be waiting just around the corner of your eye

Like an Angel watching

Even when you're dreaming

Ill be waiting just around the corner of your eye
