"Against The World"

Visit "Against The World" on MotoLyrics.com

When you see the sun is fading
Someone's plotting in the darkness
They're controllin' your existence
We're all puppets in theyr hands

Come with us, break the chains
Live a new life, your last chance
Freedom calls against the world

If you look beyond the masquerade
You will see the devil'S eyes
Now salvation's calling your name,

It's a train you cannot miss

We will rise and we will fly

Like a seagull in the sky
And the demons of the world
Will be killed, dead and gone

If you wanna be free: don't close your eyes
If you wanna be free: break the chain... now

And we'll be free
And we'll be free
And we'll be free... now
