"Sky City"

Time is running out faster than we know
Lost in the hungry steam of this material world

Realize you're hypnotized by the money bug inside of you

I can see the light, it will shine so bright

Sky city - made of our dreams
Sky city - our wheels are burnin' hot
Sky city - inside your soul
Sky city - believe in yourself
Don't let sky city fall

There's no wonder in your eyes this world ain't made of bricks

You're killing your fantasy

Realize you're paralysed break the chain inside of you

I can see the light, it will shine so bright

Sky city...

Hey sky! open up and let me see the light
Hey sky! open up and take me out of the night

Leave me alone!

Run run run, before the rain: don't let sky city fall (4x)
