Nowhere I can go
Nothing else to do
Time has run away, it's afternoon
I look strange and I see a picture
All the further time
And I see it; I feel it? lose behind

I look around; everything's strange
I don't know how I am still awake
I can't believe what's in front of me
I can't deny this is what I feel

Faded lights and twisted sounds
A thousand leaves will hit the ground
This is the world; I feel so cold
The answer never came
Faded lights and twisted sounds
I'm falling down and everything is loud
I think it's all a foolishness; I think it's all a foolishness

Walking through this land
Searching for a friend
Looking for someone who takes my hand
I feel the same, but around my body everyone is sick
Desperation reminds me what I need to be.

I look around; everything's strange
I don't know how I am still awake
I can't believe what's in front of me
I can't deny this is what I feel

Faded lights and twisted sounds
A thousand leaves will hit the ground
This is the world; I feel so cold
The answer never came
Faded lights and twisted sounds
I'm falling down and everything is loud
I think it's all a foolishness; I think it's all a foolishness

Faded lights and twisted sounds
A thousand leaves will hit the ground
This is the world; I feel so cold

The answer never came
Faded lights and twisted sounds
I'm falling down and everything is loud
I think it's all a foolishness; I think it's all a foolishness
