Let me fill your pocket with these simple words
Let me try to open up your mind
I have seen so many guys like you
Take away your hate and arrogance right now
Hello my name is my revenge and I will stay forever
So when you try to hold me down
I can remember better many faces
I've been so many places
But I can't remember someone like you boy
When you say I've not the right to speak with you
Do you know that I never cared
Cause there's something changing around me
Drop your voice and let me tell you who I am
Hello my name is my revenge and I will stay forever
So when you try to hold me down
I can remember better many faces
I've been so many places
But I can't remember someone like you boy
And I see you fade away
Closing in your socks
All the memories you've got
Corrupted by the way of being so alone
Now that I can see
You're not so different than before
Don't deserve my attention
'Cause I see you are proud of your believes
And your figure don't forget I'm looking at you
I'm looking at looking at you
I'm looking at you
