Fullmoon,
Stone of light
Show me the way
Give a reason
Not to bury over my eyes
And over my mind
Into an embrace of thorns,

That pale ghost inside of me called soul

Feed my heart again,

Before my spirit falls
Into a torbid oblio
Divored by the flames of anxiety,

Into a hopeless painful abyss
The silence is broken
By the flowing of my tears...

Oh moon take me,
And bring where all has begin
Oh moon take me,
Can you see my deep scars?
