Dehumanised future, a journey in the dark Fate is written in transparency Worlds uttered with consciousness by the transcendental lake Gradually his timeless face emerges
Showing the injuries of the cosmic pulsing heart Heavy like monoliths
the prophecies of decadence falls
The future is only the son of past faults
The silent evolution
"I remember when I saw you so strong,
But now after so many steps conducted in the fog
The instincts of domination of the order of chaos
Like suicidal tendencies they'll fall"
Losing in my mind
I am the betrayer of my time
The betrayer of my life,
the betrayer of my society
Of common religion - of the common sense
But only the sombre shadow of vengeance makes the mind clear
Now I see
They betray the truth spoken by me
Now I capture the spiritual conjunction Becoming the Oracle of the future fear time will tell for the mortals
