Ever-opening flower

Feed me seven notes of love

Let its wine burn through my veins and free my soul from its pain

Urges rage my fevered mind,

held back by dead notes, blind

By the seventh sign of the seventh son, the seventh sun sets forever in the dark sea of my mind

Never I shall smile, never I shall die

Sun be gone, end my world,

enter darkness, rich of pain

I'm eternal, forever to be free

I'm one with fire, a thousand suns burn in me

[And never I shall smile, no never I shall die]

Ever-opening flower

Feed me seven notes of love

Urges rage my fevered mind,

held back by dead notes, blind

[And never I shall smile, no never I shall die

Sun be gone, end my world,

enter darkness, rich of pain

I'm eternal, forever to be free

I'm one with fire, a thousand suns burn in me

By the seventh sign of the seventh son,

the seventh sun sets forever in the dark sea of my
mind,

in the dark sea of my mind french???

Ever-opening flower

Feed me seven notes of love

Urges rage my fevered mind,

held back by dead notes, blind, blind]
