

At The Gates "Unto Others"

Visit "Unto Others" on MotoLyrics.com

You hold high the banner
Of self-deceit
Encaged in the dogmas of life
You join the elite

My Judas-windows stay shut
Shut forever more
My Judas-windows stay shut
Shut forever more

You mock the weak
For not giving you their trust
In your world of make believe
Where statues, where statues turn to dust

My Judas-windows stay shut
Shut forever more
My Judas-windows stay shut
Shut forever more

You walk, through what is me
Stare blind cannot see
Your thoughts flee to a different land
They are free but you are bound

Silenced forever
The walls are closing in
The keys to our
Damnation burial, burial within

My Judas-windows stay shut
Shut forever more
My Judas-windows stay shut
Shut forever more

Shut forever more
