I like looking at the sky
As the wind the plays through
The skirts of the trees
The silence knows
How afraid we are of it

Cherished memories
Bleed and bloom
Our secrets like seeds
Get swept up and carried through
Our neighbourhood

Safe as houses
Tuck me in
Daylight waits for no man
Your're still young and breathing's easy
Suck it in
What a wasteless façade
What a pity we've come this far

The rain will fall and baptise
Our strongholds, our sheltered lives
Closed blinds, drawn curtains
And vinyl floors can't hide

Sane memories
Bleed and bloom
Our secrets like weeds
Creep up to the roof
Our neighbourhood

Safe as houses
Tuck me in
Daylight waits for no man
Your're still young and breathing's easy
Suck it in
What a wasteless façade
What a pity we've come this far

Our lucious denial
Our devoured minds
Our thoughts remain impotent

Our pillows stay fertile

Safe as houses

Tuck me in

Daylight waits for no man

Suck it in

What a wasteless faÃ§ade

What a pity we've come this far
