I've been searching for you, calling you all day
Was it one that stand, you just couldn't stay
Maybe you were too afraid to have a friend
Cause that friend maybe one day your loving man

I have seen it many times before last night do you really think it was coincidence i've been waiting when i meet you face to face cause i've dreamed about you, honey, for million years

To hurt somebody, it's not a pleasure to everybody
To hate somebody, doesn't make you feel good
To love somebody, it's a pleasure to everybody
To hold somebody, it will make you feel good

the woonds i heal when i still think of you
For my soul... i'm gettin over you For the lies that... cause my crying angel and my happy moods????

I'm singing aroun my empty room
Trying to find a piece of you
Calling your name but your not here
Why did you sliped away

I've been searching for you, calling you all day
Was it one that stand, you just couldn't stay
Maybe you were too afraid to have a friend
Cause that friend maybe one day your loving man

To hurt somebody, it's not a pleasure to everybody
To hate somebody, doesn't make you feel good
To love somebody, it's a pleasure to everybody
To hold somebody, it will make you feel good

To hurt somebody, it's not a pleasure to everybody
To hate somebody, doesn't make you feel good
To love somebody, it's a pleasure to everybody
To hold somebody, it will make you feel good
