God I feel I'm coming alive inside your soul every Time you open a door it's like your opening my eyes
Release the end cause lord I'm dieing with pride
Blunted and I know I 'll be by your side right here
For the race you know I 'll be b-red cause my blood Pours without a soul when she calls my name I 'll remember
All pain as a smile and a reason to ride.
You are my reason to continue.
My drive. from the dream but I got so close to you
And it's even closer when you trust me
