

Al Axy "From Day To Day"

Visit "From Day To Day" on MotoLyrics.com

Red lights were shining
White lies used to hurt
Swimming in deep waters
Exploring limits to the limit
Tasting the restlessness
Like all of them seem to do

Chorus:
What made me do this
Was to understand
How I'm changing from day to day
What made us do this

Was to realize
How we're changing from day to day

Sins were forgiven
It was time to rest
But who would take a break when
The shallowness tastes so good?
You were longing for that passion
It was giving you strength and warmth

Repeat chorus 3x
