

Al Axy "You Left Me All Alone"

We don't talk, 'cause you can't talk about it
You don't feel there's something wrong
Another day in shards of broken dreams
They're cutting all my feelings out

I pretend not to know that things can change
And when the good times fade they are gone gone gone

You left me all alone turning your back on me
A distance far too great for one man alone to walk, oh I've lost a friend and a home, can't we save what we've had once?
If nothing's changed to you, the answer is clear
It hurts

Somehow I missed the point when we both died
Like a fool I must have looked
One word from you could've saved so much time
I carried on trying my best

I was blinded by mistake and so convinced
I could fix it and bring you back into my life, but

CHORUS

Don't you care or don't you see?
Give me room 'cause I can't breathe
You already did, how could I forget!?
Don't you see or don't you care?
I don't get why you're not there
And why in the world
can't you speak and tell me why
Tell me why
