Let me know when I'll be gone
If it can't just be me, leave me alone
I'll be fine all by myself
It won't be hard to find someone else, boy

Different day but same story
Told me that you'll be here by noon
So we can spend some time together
Waiting to see your face
Pull up, hours gone by, where are you?
Don't let your friends get you caught up

Probably getting in trouble with the boys
Probably flirting with a shorty at the mall
Probably macking at every girl you see
Tell me what's up 'cause this ain't me

Probably cruising down the boulevard
Trying to show off your pretty car
With the rims spinning shining bright
Get it together, this ain't right

Let me know when I'll be gone
If it can't just be me, leave me alone
I'll be fine all by myself
It won't be hard to find someone else

So let me know when I'll be gone
If it can't just be me, leave me alone
I'll be fine all by myself
It won't be hard to find someone else, boy

If you don't wanna be with me
No need to lie, boy, just tell the truth
If you got somewhere else to be
I know you seen my number on your pager
Don't ignore it, that's how you do
And you gon' end up alone

Probably getting in trouble with the boys
Probably flirting with a shorty at the mall
Probably macking at every girl you see

Tell me what's up 'cause this ain't me

Probably cruising down the boulevard
Trying to show off your pretty car
With the rims spinning shining bright
Get it together, this ain't right

Let me know when I'll be gone
If it can't just be me, leave me alone
I'll be fine all by myself
It won't be hard to find someone else

So let me know when I'll be gone
If it can't just be me, leave me alone
I'll be fine all by myself
It won't be hard to find someone else, boy

If you don't wanna do me right
Just leave me alone
If you don't wanna show me love
Just let me be

I won't let you play with my heart
That's for sure
So be careful, betta be careful, boy

Let me know when I'll be gone
If it can't just be me, leave me alone
I'll be fine all by myself
It won't be hard to find someone else

So let me know when I'll be gone
If it can't just be me, leave me alone
I'll be fine all by myself
It won't be hard to find someone else, boy
